ANNEX

Statement of the Government of the Republic of Hungary, issued on 17 January 1991

The Government of the Republic of Hungary, on the basis of Hungary's historical experience and as a matter of principle, does not accept actions in flagrant violation of the sovereignty of individual States, rejects all forms of aggression and firmly stands for the maintenance or, if necessary, the restoration of international legal order.

On the basis of these principles, Hungary has deeply condemned the aggression against the State of Kuwait in August 1990 and the annexation of that country. Hungary has been committed to and has fully implemented all United Nations Security Council resolutions regarding the Iraqi aggression against Kuwait in the sincere hope that the united stand of the international community will compel the Iraqi leadership to dismantle the consequences of aggression.

The Iraqi leadership, in defiance of the will of the international community, refused to adhere to the norms and stipulations of international law. Up until the final deadline set by the United Nations Security Council, Iraq had shown no readiness to withdraw its troops from Kuwait and had given no indication at all that it intended to seek a peaceful settlement of the conflict. Diplomatic endeavours had proved to be unsuccessful and all opportunities to find a negotiated settlement had been, in the general view, exhausted. Thus, the international - and, among them, Arab - forces deployed in the region have become compelled to make use of the authorization of the United Nations Security Council to uphold international law and employ all means at their disposal to enforce the mandatory resolutions of the world organization.

The Hungarian people are aware that war and armed confrontation are an undesirable course of action, a necessary evil even in the most righteous cause. They are, however, also conscious of the lessons of history: aggression must be arrested, aggressors must be stopped even at the cost of sacrifices.

The Government of the Republic of Hungary sincerely hopes that the military operations aimed at the liberation of Kuwait will remain limited both in time and scope and will lead to the restoration of the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Kuwait and the security of all countries in the region with the least loss of life and damage. In keeping with its possibilities, Hungary is also contributing to these efforts and all the steps it has taken are aimed only at the elimination of aggression and its consequences and are in no way directed against the people of Iraq.

The Republic of Hungary is confident that, in the wake of an early and just solution to the crisis, new opportunities will open up to restore and enhance co-operation with Iraq and the other States in the region, as well as to create a security system encompassing the entire region and to solve decades-old conflicts.

SUMMARY STATEMENT BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON MATTERS OF WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS SEIZED AND ON THE STAGE REACHED IN THEIR CONSIDERATION

1. Pursuant to rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the Secretary-General wishes to submit hereunder the list of items of which the Security Council is currently seized, with references in parentheses to the previous summary statements that have been issued covering consideration of each item.

In fulfilment of his responsibility under rule 11, an addendum to the basic list is issued weekly, making reference to those items on which further action has been taken by the Council during the week covered or indicating that there has been no change during that period.

The Security Council met to consider the item at its 2973rd meeting, held on 4 January 1991, in accordance with the understanding reached in the Council's prior consultations.

At the same meeting, the President drew attention to the request contained in the letter dated 3 January 1991 (S/22045) from the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Observer Mission of Palestine to the United Nations that, in accordance with its previous practice, the Security Council invite the Alternate Permanent Observer for Palestine to the United Nations to participate in the debate. He said that the request was not made pursuant to rule 37 or rule 39 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council but that, if it was approved, the Council would be inviting the Alternate Permanent Observer for Palestine to the United Nations to participate, not under rule 37 or rule 39 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure, but with the same rights of participation as under rule 37.

Following discussion, the Security Council adopted the proposal by 11 votes in favour, to 1 against (United States of America), with 3 abstentions (Belgium, France and United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland).

The President of the Security Council stated that he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the members of the Security Council (S/22046):

> "The members of the Security Council are deeply concerned about recent acts of violence in Gaza, especially actions by Israeli security forces against Palestinians, which led to scores of casualties among those civilians.
> "The members of the Council deplore those actions, particularly the shooting of civilians. They reaffirm the applicability of the Fourth Geneva Convention of 1949 to all the Palestinian territories occupied by Israel since 1967, including Jerusalem, and request that Israel, the occupying Power, fully comply with the provisions of the Convention.
>
> "The members of the Council reaffirm their positions, most recently expressed in Security Council resolution 681 (1990), and support the work of the Secretary-General in implementing the said resolution. SUMMARY STATEMENT BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON MATTERS OF WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS SEIZED AND ON THE STAGE REACHED IN THEIR CONSIDERATION

Addendum

Pursuant to rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the Secretary-General is submitting the following summary statement.

The list of items of which the Security Council is seized is contained in document S/22110 of 28 January 1991.

During the week ending 26 January 1991, the Security Council took action on the following item:

In a letter dated 15 January 1991 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/22076), the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of Côte d'Ivoire to the United Nations stated that, having regard to the final communiqué of the first extraordinary session of the Authority of Heads of State and Government of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) (A/45/894-S/22025), and given the deterioration of the economic and social situation in Liberia, he was requesting that a meeting of the Security Council be convened, and that he had, accordingly, attached a draft statement by the President of the Council to be drawn to the attention of Council members, in the hope of establishing peace and stability in Liberia.

The Security Council met to consider the item at its 2974th meeting, on 22 January 1991. The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Liberia and Nigeria, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Security Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement (S/22133) on behalf of the Security Council:

"The members of the Security Council took note of the final communiqué of the first extraordinary session of the Heads of State and Government of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) issued in Bamako, Mali, on 28 November 1990.

"The members of the Security Council commend the efforts made by the ECOWAS Heads of State and Government to promote peace and normalcy in Liberia.

"The members of the Security Council call upon the parties to the conflict in Liberia to continue to respect the cease-fire agreement which they have signed and to cooperate fully with the ECOWAS to restore peace and normalcy in Liberia.

"The members of the Security Council express appreciation to the Member States, the Secretary-General and humanitarian organizations for the humanitarian assistance to Liberia and call for additional assistance. In this connection the Council welcomes the resumption of the United Nations emergency programme in Liberia following the acceptance of a general cease-fire.

"The members of the Security Council support the appeal launched by the ECOWAS Summit to the international community for increased humanitarian assistance to the people of Liberia."
